

POINT JUDITH GOES TO FORE WITH RUSH

Team's Great Play.
REDBIRDS DOWN CAMDEN

NARRAGANSETT PIER, July 22.—Point Judith and the Aiken Redbirds were the victors in the two games for the P. S. P.

goals—at the start of the annual Polo Association tournament this afternoon at the Point Judith Polo Club. Both contests were on the championship field and there was an enthusiastic throng of onlookers in the club enclosure.

Point Judith won from the Chagrin Valley team of Ohio, which made a very creditable debut in Eastern polo. Burke made the spectacular goal of the day by a gallop with the ball through the field, while Hopping and Baldwin cleared the way for him. All the Ohio men were mounted splendidly and the ponies of Fleischmann too were far above the usual. The score was 3 goals to 2 $\frac{3}{4}$  in favor of the visitors, but the odds were
